

GEAR CHECK + PETCO PARK INFO

We are so excited to be back finishing inside Petco Park! Like most stadiums, there are a few additional rules about what is allowed inside. Below is a partial list of what you can include in gear check and what your friends and family can bring to watch your epic finish.

Thank you in advance for following these guidelines!

DO BRING

- › Stadium-safe gear bag (provided at the Expo)
- › Your post-race outfit
- › Packaged/wrapped snacks (including those from the Expo)
- › Sealed water bottles (20 oz or smaller)
- › Empty water bottles (to be filled inside)
- › Juice boxes
- › Milk cartons
- › Fruit (cut into slices)
- › Signs to cheer on runners
- › Cameras / video cameras
- › Service animals
- › Strollers (spectators only; strollers not allowed on course)

DON'T BRING

- › Large bags, purses, or backpacks
- › Glass bottles
- › Cans
- › Soda (no outside beverages other than sealed water, milk, or juice)
- › Thermos bottles
- › Drones
- › Pets (except service animals)
- › Selfie sticks
- › Umbrellas
- › Knives or weapons of any sort
- › Any valuables (The San Diego Half Marathon and Petco Park are not responsible for any lost or stolen items.)
- › Motorcycle helmets

For the ultimate guide of what you can and cannot bring inside Petco Park, visit petcoparkinsider.com/can-i-bring.

